

The 10th Carrying Stream Festival

presents

Ceilidh House Night

presented by Margaret Bennett with Nancy Nicolson and..

Carol Anderson & Martin MacDonald

Carol Anderson is an energetic and sensitive fiddle player from Aberdeenshire. She has been playing since the age of ten and was taught by Jean-Ann Callender.

Over the years she has played in many bands, and is currently working with Martin MacDonald, a Lewisman and piper, whose fingerpicked guitar and 5 string banjo is extremely sympathetic to their repertoire of mainly Scottish pipe tunes. In 2010, Carol and Martin recorded their debut CD "Single Track Road Trip" and appeared at the prestigious North Atlantic Fiddle Convention.

Bill Adair

As well as being a fine guitar player BILL ADAIR is one of Scotland's most respected and busiest singer/songwriters. Combining influences from folk and blues, Bill's music addresses universal themes of love, work, loss and redemption.

"A fine mellow voice with a superb selection of songs."

Partick Folk Festival

"UNMISSABLE." Edinburgh Festival Fringe

Sunday, 13 November 2011, 8 pm

Pleasance Cabaret Bar

Tickets: £9 / £7 con / £6 members

Tickets from Edinburgh Folk Club, Coda on the Mound and from Paddy Bort (ebort@ed.ac.uk / ph 0131 650 2458)